Since the members of the Annual staff wished to depart from the customary single dedication and, for the first time, bestow this honor upon two of our teachers,

BECAUSE of their unswerving faith in the youth of today . . .

BECAUSE of their sense of humor and cheerful spirits . . .

BECAUSE of their ready comprehension of a student's problems . . .

Foreword • • •

Because the school song, For You, High expresses so beautifully the love and pride which we have for our school, we have chosen it as the theme for our Annual. By showing a pictorial cross section of our high school life, we have made a sincere effort to retain the spirit of the song. We hope that this book may recall for you some of the joy, admiration, and reverence for our Red and Blue that are revealed in For You, High.

A piece of stone, a brick or two,
A step, a door, in forceful ways
Reveal the story they might tell,
Of work, of fun and happy days.

The "footprints in the sands of time"
Are graven here in lasting stone
Of work we've done, of fun we've had,
For Alma Mater, thee, alone.

WILLIAM C. GRAHAM

Thirty-three years ago, Mr. Graham as a young man became the principal of Wilkinsburg High School. It was quite a different high school from ours of today, for it consisted of only a few rooms on the third floor of Kelly School. As principal of the high school he served for twenty-six years and for the last seven years has been our beloved superintendent.

Mr. Graham graduated from Tarkio College in Missouri and earned a Masters' Degree at the University of Pittsburgh. Great success has crowned his efforts as principal of the Wilkinsburg High School. Through his untiring labor and ceaseless efforts, the honored traditions of our high school and our loyal school spirit were established.

One of the first problems to face Mr. Graham was one of forming a league for school competition in athletics. From his labor and that of his associates developed the Western Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic League. One of his many innovations which has stood the test of time and is still the most popular phase of our school program is our chapel service. Visitors are impressed with the beauty of the service and alumni plan their visits so that they may enjoy it again. Because of his other duties Mr. Graham is unable to attend the service daily but he knows, by the rousing applause which greets his visits, how very welcome he is. Because of his great interest in athletics and especially football the school board named our splendid athletic field Graham Field, in his honor. Under his guidance the school has increased in size, in numbers and in spirit; unitedly working For You, High.

FLOYD H. CARSON

Mr. Floyd H. Carson, our principal, has proven himself to be one of the students' best friends. His seven years of loyal service and cheerful guidance have been an invaluable aid in helping the students to maintain that enviable record of Wilkinsburg scholarship.

He received his A.B. degree at Geneva College and his A.M. from the University of Pittsburgh. Before coming to Senior High, Mr. Carson taught in Cannonsburg, Dormont and Wilkinsburg Junior High.

Mr. Carson, by his wise counsel, by his genuine interest in students and their activities, and by his spirit of progressiveness has helped us to carry out the spirit of "For You High".

For seventeen years Mr. Getter has been associated with Wilkinsburg High School, the last seven of which he has been our vice principal. Mr. Getter earned his A.B. degree from Thiel College and his M.A. from Columbia University, having done special work in secondary education at the University of Pittsburgh. Before coming to Wilkinsburg Mr. Getter was principal of Clairton High School and supervising principal of Stoneborough High School. As our vice principal we have learned to know him as a sympathetic friend in time of difficulty who is ever willing to listen to our problems and to help us with a kindly word of advice.

COUNSELORS . . . Our dean of girls supervises all social functions of the high school, sponsors the Girls' Council and the Senior Counselors, teaches health classes and aids in personality adjustments. Our guidance counselor assists students in planning their courses for future vocations, and gives psychological tests to all incoming students.

SPEECH . . . To acquire poise and ease in speaking and reading, to develop talent in dramatic art and to give entertainment are the purposes of our speech department. To this end courses are given in essentials and principles of speech, diction, oral interpretation, and play production. Besides these are the fall and spring plays.

LIBRARY . . . Our library, one of the finest in the state, is under the direction of Miss Fornwalt and Miss Cunningham. Here one may find the type of reading he desires whether late periodicals, novels, or reference books. Instruction is also given to all students on how to find books easily and how to use the library for profit and pleasure.

MUSIC . . . To provide entertainment, to give instruction, and to teach an appreciation of the best in music, our high school has a band, an orchestra, an a cappella choir, and classes in chorus work. This year the music department presented three excellent programs; the Christmas Concert, the Pied Piper of Hamelin, and the Spring Music Festival.

HEALTH . . . Because health is the most important thing in life, much attention is given to it in school. To teach the students how to care for their health in order to get the most out of life is the purpose of this subject. The care and preservation of the body are the main topics of discussion along with the prevention of disease and what to do in case of illness. This year home planning and social requirements were added as topics for discussion. Not only the study of the physical care of the body but also the many environmental factors which contribute to the general health of an individual make the course of vital importance.

ATHLETICS . . . Every student in high school is required to take at least two periods of gym a week. The boys spend much time in playing basketball, volleyball, mushball and attaining skill on the parallel bars and with dumbbells. Dancing, tumbling, basketball, mushball, volleyball, and shuffle board are important features of the girls' gym classes. The boys' Gym Club and the girls' Leaders Club are organizations for those who especially enjoy gymnastic work and wish extra work in this field. Two public demonstrations of this gym work are given each year in the Gym Exhibit and Field Day, at which all kinds of skill in gym work are displayed.

ART . . . The art department furnishes extensive training for the young artist. The three year course covers designing, color harmony, water color painting, oil painting, lettering, poster work, etching, and block printing. Much work for other departments, such as making stage sets and posters to advertise the Hi Ways, plays, and sports events is done here. The classes each year look forward to visiting the International Art Exhibit at Carnegie Institute. This is an annual trip. Open House Night is important to the art department, for it is then that all the work is exhibited. After graduation, many students from this department choose art as a career.

MECHANICAL DRAWING . . . For future engineers, draftsmen, and architects, the course in Mechanical Drawing is indispensable. It lays a firm and excellent foundation both necessary and beneficial to these professions. Drawing geometric figures and designs is the work of the beginner; later drawings of machine parts and architectural designs are made by advanced students. The work completed by the students is exhibited in the halls during Open House Night. In national competition held by the Scholastic last year, three students in this department won notable awards, one first prize and two, honorable mention. Although it is usually considered a boys' subject, many girls find it worthwhile.

COMMERCIAL . . . The underlying social spirit of our times is insisting upon increasing purposiveness; in living up to this spirit the commercial department has done its share. Stenography, typing, bookkeeping, and office practice are the major subjects of this course, others are salesmanship, economics, commercial law, and commercial geography.

The course offers six semesters of bookkeeping starting with elementary bookkeeping and finishing with cost counting and banking; four semesters of typing are offered. Shorthand is taught also for four semesters, including a semester of transcription. Office practice has recently been added to the curriculum and already it is indispensable to a commercial student. Here one learns how to use duplicating machines, bookkeeping machines, dictaphone and ediphone machines and he also studies filing, clerical work, and office relations.

Salesmanship, economics, commercial law, and commercial geography are each one semester subjects. They give the students a better understanding of the business world. Salesmanship aims to teach the student tact in business relations, economics, to tell how man gets a living and to suggest how he may obtain a better one, commercial law, to acquaint the student with necessary fundamental laws of the business world, and commercial geography, to teach the geographical resources of the world as well as foreign commerce and industries.

This interesting as well as practical course is an excellent preparation for a vocational career which follows graduation.

ENGLISH . . . English, because it plays an important part in our everyday life, naturally is given much attention in our high school. The course gives the student, whether he plans to continue his education or not, preparation for enjoying that great recreative occupation, reading, since instruction in literature should arouse "any dormant interest in reading". In order that every student may make the acquaintance of a wide variety of forms of artistic expression, the course provides study of various types of literature.

The aim of the course in the sophomore year is to broaden the mental experience of the pupil. Such classics as "Silas Marner" and "Merchant of Venice" are studied. Through such study, the pupil is able to form opinions concerning good literature.

To develop the student's imaginative life is the aim of the English course during the junior year. In this year a study of representative American literature is made. A study of mythology and of "Julius Caesar" is another part of the second year's work.

The senior year furthers the work of the two previous years. The student comes into contact with other prominent writers and increases his knowledge of worthwhile literature. A survey of English literature from the early epic of Beowulf to the poetry of John Masefield constitutes a large part of the study along with an intensive study of "Macbeth" and "Milton's Minor Poems".

Opportunity is given for creative writing as well as practice in letter writing and other forms of written English. After a completion of the course, the student should be able to enjoy good literature as well as to speak and write English creditably.

FOREIGN LANGUAGES . . . Of the four foreign languages taught in our school, Latin is considered the foundation language because it gives a thorough understanding of the origin of our own language and serves as a background for the study of the others. The course consists of a comprehensive reading from the classics, drill in grammatical principles, prose writing, and the study of word origin.

Guten Tag! Thus are greeted the students in the German classes, beginning with the first year's study of grammar and fundamental principles. The second year is spent in reading. Among the books read are "Immensee" and "Irrfahrten". The course aims to impart to each student not only a reading knowledge of German but also a speaking knowledge of the language.

The French language is one of the most popular languages in our high school. In the three years which this course covers, the students learn to read and speak French fluently and correctly. Construction and grammar form the basis for the first year's study but the second and third years are spent in reading plays, novels, and "L' Histoire de France" with practice in French conversation based upon their reading.

Spanish is taught not only for its use in foreign trade and diplomatic service but also for a knowledge of Spanish literature. The Spanish students, though few, make up in enthusiasm what they lack in number. After studying the elements of grammar for one year, embryonic Spaniards read "Espana Pintoresca" and "La Hermana San Sulpicio".

HISTORY . . . Great emphasis is placed upon history in our high school. The general aim of the history course is to make clear the story of history that pupils may appreciate its growth, its ideals, its associations, and its recurring cycles; more specifically it is to understand the present in relation to the past. The course is divided into two phases; that of college preparatory which includes history from the ancient times through American history, and the non-college preparatory which includes ancient history up to American history. In the course in American history special emphasis is placed upon the study of the constitution. Besides these, there is a course on Problems in American Democracy.

BIOLOGY . . . The purpose of the biology course is to acquaint the student with his natural surroundings. He is encouraged to be independent in his study that he may become at ease in handling valuable specimens and delicate machinery. The work is divided into a two semester course, zoology and botany. In the fall and winter zoology is studied with laboratory work in dissecting of typical specimens. General plant life is studied in the spring, when the classes take up botany. Special emphasis is placed upon recognition of the different leaves and blossoms. Students are taught the care of plants, in order to obtain the full benefit and enjoyment from them.

CHEMISTRY . . . Chemistry is an elective science open to seniors only. It is essential to the study of many professions as medicine, pharmacy, industry, and numerous others. To understand the chemical changes which are going on everywhere makes the study of chemistry not only a very interesting, but very practical one. Two courses in chemistry are offered—one general or non-academic for those who do not intend to pursue the subject after their high school course, the other is a college preparatory course for a more advanced course. Through the laboratory work, chemistry develops the student's power of concise expression and interpretation of results and gives experience in generalizing facts and building theories to explain them.

PHYSICS . . . A course in physics helps to train and encourage the future scientists of our school. The full one year course includes the thorough study of liquids, solids, and gases, pressure and buoyancy, force and motion, work power and energy, heat and its uses, electricity, magnetism, sound, and light. In physics, as in the other sciences, three periods a week are spent in recitation and two double periods, in the laboratory, as prescribed by the state course. In the laboratory the students perform experiments using the laws learned in recitation. On the night of Open House, the physics classes attract many people with their curious scales and weights. This course meets all the requirements for college entrance.

MATHEMATICS . . . The mathematics department offers courses in plane and solid geometry, general mathematics, algebra, and trigonometry. There are two semesters of plane geometry and one of solid geometry. In addition to the regular classes in plane geometry, there are special classes for those students who find their first introduction to it difficult. A five semester course in algebra is included in this department beginning with the fundamentals of the subject and ending with college algebra. An elective course in general mathematics is offered those who do not plan to enter college. This course is excellent for general or practical use, as well as to create independent and concise thinking.

INDUSTRIAL . . . This is a practical and worthwhile course for boys not wishing to enter into the professional field. It gives them training for a successful life in the industrial world. One practices, in the electrical section of the course, electrical wiring, principles of operation, daily uses of magnetic devices, signalling, lights, switches, and construction of transformers and generators. The student learns how to use and take care of tools, to disassemble and reassemble a car in the industrial arts course. This course serves as a very practical basis for specialized study for those who wish to enter any of the great industries after graduation.

WOODSHOP . . . This is a course interesting to all boys. The student studies furniture and art appreciation, accompanied by instruction in the use and care of hand tools. Training in the history, design, and construction of furniture is a useful and important part of this course. Useful household goods are made in this department. Book ends, tables, stools, cabinets, book cases, and magazine racks are a few of the articles made by the boys. Some of the more advanced students make such unusual objects as guitars and carved models. This course trains the hands to be useful, industrious, and skillful.

HOME ECONOMICS . . . Since the girl of today must know how to care for family needs, how to care for children and to create the proper home atmosphere, the school offers a thorough course in home economics. The course stresses two subjects, the preparation and pleasing ways of serving foods, and second the designing and making of garments. The girls are taught how to obtain the best values of food and clothing on the market. Home nursing and the principles of interior decoration are included in the course. Each year special teas are given by the girls for their mothers and teachers.

Every second Tuesday the ninth period the doors of room 108 close on a meeting of one of the most important groups in Wilkinsburg High School—the Student Council. The council is composed of twenty-one members; twelve seniors, six juniors, and three sophomores. The motto of Student Council is "The Betterment of the School". Besides solving school problems, Student Council has the important duty of electing ushers and cheerleaders. The Lost and Found Department is ably taken care of by Student Council members at the information desk, and they also send letters to pupils out of school for a great length of time. The Student Council also sponsors elections and grants charters to newly formed clubs. One of the most outstanding accomplishments this year was the planning of special chapel programs during football and basketball seasons.

• • • Activity Board

The Activity Board is composed of five faculty members and five students and is the most important organization in Wilkinsburg High School. The members are elected by the student body, and serve until graduation.

The main responsibility of the Activity Board is the managing of the finances for school activities and projects; all school funds such as money received from entertainments and plays, musical programs, and the gym exhibit are entrusted to it. With funds received from these sources, the Board purchased robes for the a cappella choir, and this year is buying new uniforms for our band. Besides, it elects all managers of school productions, such as plays and the gym exhibit, and the editor and business manager of the Hi Ways and Annual Staff.

The most outstanding achievements of the Board this year were the purchasing of striking jackets for the ushers, and the much-needed band uniforms.

Under the able management of its directors and managers, the Activity Board energetically plans and discusses improvements and new ideas which will keep the colors of W. H. S. flying high.

Although the Annual Staff had been elected in May and had begun work early in September, jobs piled up quickly; and, in October, under the direction of Miss Irma E. Hamilton, we began work in earnest. After we had chosen our theme, For You, High, we started the sales campaign. On bended knee Chuck begged talented friends to be in chapel programs to help sell one thousand Annuals (which he did, to our delight). Calvin and Brady, with their cameras, snapped students playing or working. Margaret cornered seniors whose pictures were missing from her files. February, all too short, found us frantic, for we were scheduled to go to press March 16. Myra Ann and Ellen spent hours making up the dummy while Dot and Lucielle created clay models for the division pages. Theodora spent five days tracking down a four dollar surplus, which Don, according to her books, had never collected. The Auxiliary Staff played stooge for Jim Hepburn and Martha Jane, running all sorts of errands. Jim Webb and Gerry got their first grey hairs proofreading activity sheets every night until the adviser sent them home at the final ringing of the janitor's bell.

Finally press week arrived. Mary, Ruth, and Raye typed last-minute articles, while Melvin and Big Bill Hurtt (so called to distinguish him from Little Bill McMinn) chased last minute ads and Calvin took last-minute pictures. Finally the last pages went to the printer. Except for distribution in May, the work on the Annual was finished, and every single staff member felt proud of his Annual.

The "Hi Ways", a student publication issued bi-weekly "For You, High" constitutes one of the four major activities of the school. This paper, which keeps parents as well as students informed of school activities and class room work, is under the excellent supervision of Miss Rhoda Beatty, who lends a helping hand whenever it is necessary.

Before a student is admitted to the "Hi Ways" staff, he must have successfully completed one year of journalism, have shown ability in the journalistic field or have been a successful member of the staff of another school paper. Imagine if you can a school without music! Or imagine singing "For You, High" without the orchestra! Our school would lack a great deal of spirit without the orchestra (to send the music spinning "round and round").

Because they play from the pit, we often forget how much we owe these competent people who furnish the music for our school plays, for our concerts, and for our music festivals. We too often forget we are indebted to them for those stirring marches such as Anchors Aweigh and Washington and Lee, when we enter and leave chapel, for the music of our hymns and for those faithful musicians who direct our quiet meditation at the opening of chapel.

The orchestra provides an excellent opportunity for the students to develop any musical talent they possess, and it furthers the music appreciation of the entire student body.

The string quartette furnishes the entertainment for many P. T. A. meetings and many other gatherings. Orchestra members are sent to try-outs for the state orchestra which provides unlimited possibilities for music study.

The orchestra itself is under the direction of Mr. Elwood N. Scott. A student director is also chosen. Practices are held twice a week. At that time the music is rehearsed for forthcoming school productions.

For You, High would not be complete without this admirable organization. We don't always realize it but the orchestra would take a great amount of enjoyment out of our school life if it should suddenly stop playing. The faculty and student body alike owe the orchestra a vote of gratitude.

Every Saturday afternoon during the brisk, fall weather of the football season, the red and blue clad boys in the band of Wilkinsburg High School appear at all the games whether the game is away or at home. As the boys enter the field, flying the American flag and the high school banner, led by Bob Gooch, they make a very colorful picture. The wee mascot and fierce tiger give a picturesque touch to the scene.

Above the sound of the music may be heard the voices of the students singing the school song, which the band is playing. Finally the entire crowd of students and alumni join in song, expressing their school spirit and loyalty to the team. To the roll of the drums, they express their enthusiasm in cheers and rousing pep songs.

At intervals throughout the game, the band plays to cheer the team on to victory. At crucial moments the drums roll incessantly. When one of the players of Wilkinsburg eleven plunges across the goal for a touchdown, the band leads the students in a spirited school song.

Between the halves the band marches on the field and forms intricate figures as well as the initials of the visiting team playing their Alma Mater meanwhile. Shifting its formation it forms our own W and plays "For You, High".

Each Friday, when pep meetings are held, the band plays Wilkinsburg's traditional songs to help the cheerleaders build up enthusiasm for the game which is on hand.

This year the Activity Board carried on a campaign to raise funds for new band uniforms. With unbounded enthusiasm the whole school got behind the movement and the proceeds from the tea dances, the class dances, the music festival, Pied Piper and benefit basketball games were contributed to the fund. We are looking forward to seeing the band, one of the finest organizations in school, in new uniforms next year leading us on to victory.

THE A CAPPELLA CHOIR

For You, High, our a cappella choir has given much. It has spread your name far and wide. Word of our choir's beautiful singing, sent through the medium of radio, has come from that distant land on the opposite side of the globe, India; also from South America, Canada, and all parts of the United States. In our own vicinity it has carried your name to many community gatherings, club meetings, radio programs, and into many local churches. "You" through the choir have often been the means of bringing

"Within some temple still, His presence,
 Because the Christ was there in song".

While within your own walls, it upholds those finer things without which our education would be found wanting. The choir lends much beauty to our chapel service as the colorful blending of voices sings the response to the reading of the word of God; plays a prominent part in the annual Christmas Concert in the singing of Handel's immortal Messiah, and again takes part in the Spring Music Festival. This year it presented to large appreciative audiences that delightful operetta The Pied Piper of Hamelin. The choir is an organization which strives, through the common bond of music, to create a greater appreciation of culture value.

Our a cappella choir is fortunate in having a very able leader and an inspirational musician in the person of Mr. Frank C. Biddle. It acquires through his inspirational guidance a better understanding of the best in vocal music. The student who has "made" the choir has a feeling of having achieved something worth while. To be worthy of that honor must be his aim thereafter; having been faithful he comes one day to feel that he has received even as he has given, For You, High.

THE SPRING FESTIVAL

Every year more than two thousand students from all the schools of Wilkinsburg participate in the Spring Music Festival. At this event children's choruses, boys' and girls' glee clubs, and many other fine ensembles entertain two large audiences, whose reception is always enthusiastic. The combined high school chorus of three hundred and fifty voices is the foundation on which the concert is built and of course our own a cappella choir is the nucleus of the group. Two other featured groups in this festival are our band and orchestra. The grade schools also present an orchestra which holds much interest for the audience.

THE CHRISTMAS CONCERT

Each year at Christmas time the combined choruses of the music department present Handel's famous oratorio the "Messiah". There is a total of four hundred and fifty voices in the chorus, assembled from the classes in beginning chorus, the advanced choruses and the a cappella choir. The solo parts in the opera are sung by former graduates of Wilkinsburg High School. This year the soloists were, Clyde Wolford, Gladys Wolford, Annabelle Wineman and J. Alvin Little, all of whom make their homes in our borough. During the concert the Wilkinsburg String Ensemble played Handel's "Pastoral Symphony".

THE CHOIR DURING PRACTICE

Guess Again • • •

On May 21st and 23rd, 1935, one of our high school's best play casts presented a play of unusual merit. The play was Guess Again and its reception by the student body proved it to be a smash hit. The author of the play, Glenn Hughes, head of the drama department of the University of Washington, has skillfully combined the art of mystery and fun, and still kept the acting well within the ability of high school students.

The setting is the lobby of Edgewater Inn, a small hotel in southern California. The manager, Mr. Grimes, in need of patrons, finds that the arrival of Lord Wiggleton and his valet excites much curiosity on the part of his guests, especially Mrs. Skinner and her daughter, Dora May Skinner, and Olive Ordway. The undue attention of Marcella Jenks and Renee Lamour drive Lord Wiggleton and his valet away from the hotel for a short time. To keep the guests from discovering this flight, Janet, Mr. Grimes' clever secretary, persuade two of her friends, Waldo and Bill, to adopt her plan of masquerading as the two Englishmen. Of course after much excitement and guessing everything ends happily.

Guess Again was one of the high lights of the commencement season and a play that will not be soon forgotten.

• • • Growing Pains

Growing Pains was one of the most successful and outstanding plays ever given by Wilkinsburg High School. Its overwhelming success was marked by the fact that a second performance was given at the request of the Parent-Teachers Association.

Aurania Rouverol relates in her play, Growing Pains, the heartaches, joys, and trials of adolescence.

Professor and Mrs. McIntyre, the sensible parents in the plot, have seen their George and Terry "through the measles and the whooping cough" and they patiently "see them through adolescence". In the climax, George is taken to jail for striking an officer, and consequently breaks up a party and almost his mother's heart. So discarding their determination to be grown-up and get it over with, the bewildered children finally decide that acting natural is much easier!

The stage crew skillfully made new scenery which portrayed a California patio, and with the new furniture, the stage setting was most attractive and appropriate. The patient and untiring directing of Miss Sara Parson, the excellent performance of the cast, the beauty of the setting, and the true to life plot of the play, all combined to make Growing Pains a great success.

The Parent-Teachers Association of Wilkinsburg High School is made up of the teachers and the parents of the students.

Regular monthly meetings are held, at which prominent speakers address the association on topics of interest to the members. To bring the home and the school into closer relationship is the main object of such an association whose meetings give our parents an opportunity to become better acquainted with our teachers and our school system.

There are several committees to help carry on the work, such as the membership committee, of which Mrs. George G. Bennett is chairman. Mrs. Herbert Patterson is chairman of the program committee, Mrs. William Goff, chairman of the hospitality committee, Mrs. J. D. Hess is chairman of the publicity committee, while Mr. W. R. Walters is chairman of the finance committee. There is also a parent-education committee which has as its chairman, Mrs. Ray H. Kiser, and a publication committee of which Mrs. Robert A. Scott is chairman.

For the last two years, the refreshment stand at Graham Field has been managed by the P. T. A. This year a profit of over three hundred dollars was made. This money was used for many worthy causes. Some was used for free transportation for pupils who live too far from the school to walk and can not afford transportation. There was also some spent for clothing and lunches for those pupils that are on the welfare. They also donated one hundred dollars last December to the Activity Board of the high school to be spent either for an electric organ or to help buy new uniforms for the band.

It is very evident that this association has been unusually successful and has been a help to our school in many ways. The organization urges all parents and teachers to have a share in these projects and to be present at its monthly meetings.

"May I show you to a seat, sir? Will this be all right?" These are the words you hear from that cheerful and courteous group of boys, the ushers. Not only at the evening events do they serve their school, but every school day they are on duty in chapel to assist the students in finding seats and to take charge of the many exits. They have charge of the opening of the doors before chapel and the closing of them after its dismissal.

In the spring of every year fourteen boys, four who will be juniors and ten who will be seniors in the following year are chosen as ushers by the student council. These boys together with the juniors elected the previous year make up the ushers squad.

The four ushers who had been elected as juniors the previous year each served as head usher during the events of commencement week, at which time when the newly elected ushers first assumed their responsibility. At the beginning of school in the fall, the Student Council elected a head usher. This year Barrie Graham was head usher and he did an excellent job of taking charge of the programs and placing of the ushers.

This year, after many years of planning, the ushers received uniforms. These handsome red and blue jackets add much to the dignity of the position.

This group of boys, which is of such great service, finds much pleasure in its contribution to our high school. For You, High is the ushers' motto, and they serve their school faithfully and efficiently every day doing their part to assist the students and guests, both at chapel and the evening events.

Girl Reserves • • •

The Girl Reserves is an organization of which our high school is justly proud. Membership is open to any girl in school who is interested in the work. The club meets every Monday afternoon at four o'clock at the Young Women's Christian Association. Each Monday of the month a different program is given. The first Monday a business meeting is held; the second a student program; the third is a guest speaker, and the fourth is a "hobby day". Many worthwhile social projects are taken up by this group such as Thanksgiving baskets, Christmas boxes, and visits to the Children's Home. Each year this club holds a farewell party for the senior girls. The two big social events of this club are the Girl Reserve-Hi-Y Dance and the Newsies Party when the girls play hostess to the town newsboys. With its purpose to create high ideals of Christian living among the girls, the Girl Reserves is one of the finest organizations of our school.

Donating Thanksgiving baskets to the needy and contributing to the Welfare Fund are two outstanding projects among the numerous activities carried out by the Hi-Y club. Because the purpose of the club is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community, the highest standards of Christian character, the members feel that to help others is one of the best ways to carry out the club's ideals.

Not only is the club a working unit but it also enjoys a varied social program such as informal parties, swims, hikes, and many other activities. The annual Hi-Y-Girl Reserve dance is a gala event in the school calendar. The club meets Thursday evening of each week in one of the churches of the town. At these meetings the boys have an opportunity to hear inspirational talks and to take part in group discussion upon subjects related to their lives, both in and out of school. It is the only club open to every boy in the school.

The Latin Club, which is distinguished by being the largest club in our high school, is also boastful of its 100% paid membership. To be eligible for membership one must have completed one year of Latin and be enrolled in a Latin class during time of membership. The purpose of the club is to create and renew an enduring appreciation of the Latin language. The club meets twice a semester in the high school beside the tea dance and spring picnic. The meetings of the year are arranged so that two are held in the afternoon and two in the evening. Latin club meetings have proved very interesting this year as a result of several cleverly planned programs. In one of the meetings, a talk was given by Barbara Jackman concerning her recent trip to Italy, which was most interesting. Also there were some Latin plays and a Roman fashion show given by the students.

• • • French Club

Le Cercle Francais is one of the oldest clubs in school and was organized for the purpose of learning more about the customs and the language of the French people and to secure more practice in oral French. Membership is open to all students who have completed one year of French. The club meets twice each semester besides the annual election and picnic. At all meetings French only is spoken affording practical experience in speaking the language fluently. This year the club had the privilege of seeing that very interesting sound picture "Sans Famille", the story of which they had already read in class. At another meeting this year there was the showing of an excellent silent film, which pictured the story of a traveler's life on board a ship going to France and some of his experiences during the several weeks of his sojourn in France.

Science Club • • •

In our high school students desiring to explore the different fields of modern science find many companions of similar inclination in the Science Club. This organization is sponsored by all of the teachers in the Science department. The aim of this club is to present to the members phases of physics, botany, zoology, and chemistry which can not be explained nor demonstrated in regular class sessions. Any student who is currently enrolled in a class of any science may become a member of this large and very active organization. Their meetings have much variety, and consequently are very interesting. The programs consist of scientific and industrial movies, speeches by visiting scientists, and experiments with curious laws of physics, queer forms of plant and animal life and astounding chemical reactions. Often the club goes on field trips to local industrial plants and the offices of public utilities, iron and steel foundries, and scientific research bureaus.

• • • Drama Club

DRAMA CLUB . . . The Drama Club was organized to arouse members of the speech department to a love of good drama. Through a varied program of plays, pantomimes, talks, and speech choruses the club aims to gain its objective.

Many of the plays prepared by the play production classes are given at the meetings of the club. Readings by members of the oral interpretation classes are given between the one act plays. The meetings are held twice a semester in the large auditorium. One meeting each semester is held in the evening, and the other immediately after school.

It has been the custom of this club to exchange every year one act plays with Swissvale High School's drama club. Their club presents two or three one act plays to our members and our club, in turn, presents plays to their members. Through this practice, an exceptional friendly feeling has been built up between the two schools.

GERMAN . . . The German Club, although it was the first club in our school, is today one of the smallest because the study of German has not regained its pre-war popularity. The club, under its able sponsors, has fostered an interest in German by the study of German customs and lore. At the monthly meetings which are held at the home of one of the members, short plays are given or discussions are held in German followed by typical German refreshments and the singing of German songs.

ART CLUB . . . The Art Club, which is open to all those enrolled in art classes, tries to bring to its members a true appreciation of art. Talks by prominent speakers, trips to art exhibits, and special projects by the members form the major part of the club's program. At Christmas time they make Christmas cards to sell; they also made posters for the "Penny Drive" sponsored by Columbia Hospital. A spring feature is an outdoor sketching trip, ending in a picnic supper.

El Circulo Espanol - Senior Counselors

SPANISH CLUB . . . Though the Spanish Club is very small, its members consider it very important, and justly so. Its meetings, held to give practice in oral Spanish, are always interesting. For one evening the members forget their mother tongue and speak only in Spanish. The programs include movies, plays by the members, speeches by former residents of Spain, Mexico, and South America, and Spanish music. Add to these, congenial members and delicious refreshments, and what more could be asked of any club?

SENIOR COUNSELORS . . . In order that the sophomore girls may quickly become familiar with our school and its traditions, each year the Girls' Council chooses a group of Senior Counselors to acquaint the new girls with these things. At their meetings, held every two weeks during a chapel period, the girls discuss their duties and responsibilities as high school students. In these meetings the sophomore girls learn the customs and rules of our school. These discussions are enjoyed by sophomores and seniors and prove most valuable to both.

HOME ECONOMICS . . . The membership of the Home Economics Club is limited to those who are enrolled or have had a year's work in the department. The aim of the club is to develop poise, to acquire social ease, meeting social situations in a pleasing and charming manner. Besides having a buffet supper and a picnic, the members have prominent speakers who discuss topics of vital interest.

COMMERCIAL . . . The membership in the Commercial Club is limited to those who are enrolled in the commercial department. A varied program of meetings for the year was planned and carried out. Business men were asked to address the club from time to time. At other meetings the members themselves participated. A high spot of the year was the Commercial Club tea dance.

• • • Aviation - Girls' Council

AVIATION CLUB . . . Although quite young, the club has grown to be one of the most interesting and practical clubs in school. Its purpose is to study about all the phases of aviation. It gives helpful information concerning parts of airplanes; the place of aviation in travel and transportation; designs and constructions, both past and future. The club meets every two weeks at which one may see a demonstration or hear talks by some experienced aviator, or a motion picture. Membership is open to those interested in aviation.

GIRLS' COUNCIL . . . The Girls' Council is an organization of girls selected by the different health classes. Their main work is to inspect the wash-rooms and issue bulletins at various times during the year on personal appearance, personality, and conduct. After these bulletins have been prepared, a report is given in each health class. In February the Girls' Council sponsored a Leap Year tea dance which was a huge success. Sometime during the spring the Council holds a banquet. The meetings are held every two weeks.

The Stage Crew

STAGE CREW OFFICERS

Manager - - - HARVEY BECKETT
Sponsor - - - MISS PARSON

The Stage Crew, directed by Miss Sara Parson, is one of the hardest working groups in our school. It is composed chiefly of boys whose duties are many and varied. Each morning two of these boys, in charge of the projection machine, flash the hymn and announcements on the screen during chapel. Whenever programs are given in chapel, it is the duty of the stage crew to set the stage and operate the curtains. Every production presented in our auditorium brings new jobs to the crew. For concerts and musical programs, the curtains must be moved from their regular places and tied in the "flies". For all plays, those of Junior High School, High School, or the community, the Stage Crew must set the scene, place the furniture, and, after the play, must take them all down.

Not only does the crew set up the scenery, but they often make it. This year, after weeks of scrubbing, cutting, glueing, and painting, a California patio was made from mattress boxes, and old boards for the play "Growing Pains". The set of wide stairs, a red tile roof, a fountain, and a high wall combined to make one of the most original settings ever seen on our high school stage.

Although Mr. Walters is in charge of the switch-board and the general lighting system, all spotlights and special lights are operated by some member of the crew. All off-stage noises, as bells, horns, crashes, thunder, wind, and rain, are created by the crew.

The Music Club is one of the most active and also one of the largest clubs because of its great popularity and large eligibility list. Anyone in the music department, from a class in beginners' chorus to the a cappella choir, from a music appreciation class to the harmony classes, as well as any member of the band or orchestra, is eligible to join it. The business meetings of the club are followed by programs of music which are very much liked by the members. The music club aims to present to its members the very best local talent which can be secured. Several instrumental and vocal soloists have appeared at these meetings and have presented programs of much value as well as great entertainment. One of these was Miss Marian Genet, noted classical composer and organist at Saint Stephen's Episcopal Church of Wilkinsburg. Miss Genet presented a program of piano selections composed by herself and scored a great success.

Every year the music club sponsors a dance which is open to everyone in the school. This year the dance was held on February seventh in the boys' gym. The music was supplied by Tommy Thirkell's orchestra and the theme of the dance was "Moon Over Miami". The committee on decorations, headed by Gil McMurtrie, devised a novel scheme of decoration and a tricky light system. The dance, although it was not very well attended, was voted a huge success by the enthusiastic crowd and declared "one of the best we ever had".

The Book Club is the newest club in high school. It sets forth as its standards and aims the following: to promote the general appreciation of better literature; to promote greater student interest in the library; to acquire a speaking knowledge of great works of both contemporary and classical authors; to be able to interpret good literature, stressing the contemporary; to learn the general characteristics of outstanding authors, and to be able to associate them with their works; to distinguish and evaluate classes of books, i. e., between the best and mediocre types; to be able to enjoy these works and to pass on our enthusiasm; and to promote general culture in all the arts.

One of the newest leagues to be formed in western Pennsylvania is the Western Pennsylvania Interscholastic Chess League, known as the W. P. I. C. L. At its first meeting in the fall of the school year, Mr. Helmbold of Wilkinsburg was elected as the president. Among the rules adopted are that a passing grade in four subjects must be required of each player; that no player be over twenty years of age nor have spent more than six semesters in a three year high school.

Until March 5, 1936, the Wilkinsburg team had won seven out of nine games and tied one, losing only to Carnegie Tech.

KARL W. BOHREN . . . Our new coach is a very capable one. Faced with a hard schedule and with a new squad, he brought together a fine team which played clean, hard football. Coach Bohren is popular with the boys, and we are all looking forward to a successful team next season under his coaching.

CHARLES BAINBRIDGE . . . Captain Bainbridge, a Senior, played left end, a position which he has held without dispute for the past two seasons. Although injured in the early part of the season, he proved his ability as a good pass-catcher and defense player. He received honorable mention on the all-scholastic W. P. I. A. L. team. "Chuck" was unanimously elected captain of this year's team.

JAMES DAUBENSPECK . . . Jim is that curly-headed, smiling manager who was everywhere when needed, supplying the boys with bandage and liniment. A Senior and an honor student, Jim devoted his time after school, first as assistant manager, then as senior manager. He liked his work and was popular with the entire squad.

HOWARD BECHTOLD . . . Howard, a Senior and the right end, was noted for his general aggressiveness and spirit. He handled effectively many outstanding tackles playing opposite him. It was "Becky's educated toe" which provided us with many points after touchdowns and also gained our victory over Norwin. His stellar playing gained him a place on the third team of the all-scholastic W. P. I. A. L.

HAROLD B. GRIM . . . Mr. Grim is the assistant coach who is always on the job, in training both line-men and backfield men. With his experience as a player, he was able to give the squad valuable information and individual attention. He is keenly interested in the boys and proved himself a very able assistant to Coach Bohren.

Scott was the strongest foe of this season. After a scoreless first half the above scene shows a break away for one of the two touchdowns scored.

THOMAS CERRA . . . Toby played left guard and was equally as well on defense as on offense. This was Cerra's senior year and his second as a letterman. His speed in pulling out of line to run interference proved a big factor in ground gaining. Though small, his spirit and determination made him an outstanding player, and his smile won him a host of friends everywhere.

LEMUEL WILCOX . . . Lem is a junior and this is his first year as a letterman. He is slated for a regular position next year, for Lem's experience this year has prepared him for another season. As a ready replacement at left tackle, he turned out to be quick-thinking and ever alert. Besides playing football Lem finds time for study and fun.

CHARLES MATHEWSON . . . Charles is the left end who has earned his letter for two years despite the stiff competition for his position. He was a hard working end who didn't let many runners slip around him. Sonny was also a fine pass-catcher and offensive player. A happy-go-lucky fellow with a ready greeting and a smile for everybody.

DAVID HALLOCK . . . Dave is a plunging full-back who had the knack of putting down his head and running for five yards or more. A very difficult man to tackle and a very hard tackler himself. He helped back up the line and also break up enemy passes. Dave is a senior and a second year letterman. He too, was injured early in the season, but he later recovered to show his ability.

ROBERT BISSELL . . . Bissell is a heavy fullback who could run fast despite his weight. He usually made a gain every time he went through the line and, once through, he was hard to bring down. Bob is a senior who earned his second letter this year. His persistence is the type which coaches like to find in their squads.

Pitcairn played well on the defense and managed to hold Wilkinsburg to three touchdowns. They were all scored in the second quarter, two by Lytch and one by Ferguson.

WILLIAM BARNES . . . Small, speedy and tricky is our Billy, who was the running right halfback on this year's team. He was our main ground-gainer and scorer. He came through with at least one lengthy run every game. His ever-present smile and ability to "take it" made him popular with team-mates and opponents. Success to you, Billy.

ELLWOOD LAWSON . . . Lawson was the tall, well-built, 170 lb. center who bore the brunt of the opponents' line smashes while backing up the line. He played the full sixty minutes in many games and was rarely replaced. "Bucky" is a senior, a second year letterman, who finds time to take part in many activities besides football.

ROSS ROBERTS . . . Ross became a surprisingly fast fullback this year. He could spin quickly and dodge through a small hole in the line for a gain. He is a senior and a letterman for the first time. Roberts' fast development into a good player this year has marked him for better playing in college. His steady determination won for him a first team berth.

JAMES McKNIGHT . . . Jim developed into a strong, smashing right tackle in his senior year. Weighing 185 lbs., he helped raise the average weight of our line. It was he who recovered the fumble and scored the safety to beat Swissvale, our ancient rival. "Bear's" height and weight were enough to frighten any opposing lineman. He is a senior and a first year letterman.

JACK BROWN . . . As left guard, Brown proved to be the strong spot on our line. His vicious tackles and excellent blocking were noticeable in every game. He has another year to play and many honors are predicted for him. Jack received honorable mention on the all-scholastic W. P. I. A. L. team and is a fine successor to his brother, "Doc".

Wilkinsburg broke Swissvale's winning streak by the score of 9-7. A safety scored in the final seconds of the game was the deciding tally.

DAVID WIKE . . . Only a sophomore, Dave became the first team quarterback and handled the position capably. His punting kept the opponents back on their heels many times and his blocking was perfect. His booming punts in the Scott game were equal to those of many college players. We expect Dave to be a standout on next year's team.

JACK SATTERFIELD . . . Jack was a scrappy, 150 lb. right guard who could be depended upon when needed. He played in the Scott game with an injured neck until finally taken out when exhausted. His type of playing builds up a team and proves that size doesn't count. We expect to see Jack playing on some college football squad next fall.

HAROLD LYTCH . . . Another speedy halfback but also a very effective blocker, "Buddy" proved to be a hard working running mate for Billy Barnes. Lytch is one of the fastest tap dancers in high school and isn't afraid to demonstrate speed on the field. Only a junior, he has earned his first letter and is expected to be a star next year.

BOB CRAWFORD . . . Jovial number "foahy-foah" was a popular player on the squad. Bob is a senior and a letterman for the second time. He filled the left tackle position and gave a fine performance in every game. His tackles were low and hard, while his offensive blocking was everything to be desired. Here's to your success in your new home in Cincinnati.

ROBERT WINGENROTH . . . "Wingy" was our sturdy left halfback who kept the boys on their toes throughout the entire game. He was a fine pass defense man as well as a fast runner. Bob is a senior and has earned his letter for the second consecutive year. Not only does "Wingy" play football but he also captained a local basketball squad.

Mr. Scott leading the band after a touchdown . . . three of the cheerleaders at work . . . Homer Shadle, the hard working "Tiger".

ARCHIE POINDEXTER . . . Archie was the fastest runner among the back-field men and could run around the ends with ease. Once in the open, it was very hard to catch him. Archie is a junior and this is his second year as a letterman. Speedy half-backs like Archie are always in demand when yardage is needed.

HENRY KESTNER . . . Henry was a South Hills player who moved to Wilkinsburg and immediately became popular with the squad. This short, sturdy player was a welcome addition to the guards. He gave everything for the team and made opponents realize that the right guard position was not an easy spot to go through, showing the Wilkinsburg spirit in all his playing.

THEODORE FOREPAUGH . . . Ted is that tall senior whose valuable position as an end, makes replacement difficult. A good pass-catcher who had the knack of coming out of a mass of players with the ball in his arms. Although this was Forepaugh's first year on the squad, his splendid playing earned for him the coveted letter "W".

HILBERT DAHL . . . Dahl, although only a sophomore, was the heaviest man on the squad, weighing 210 lbs., and was quite capable of filling the right tackle position. He was very difficult to take out of a play and besides opened large gaps in the line. His return next year will be a welcome sight.

FRANK BROUCH . . . Frank was the tall, brainy quarter-back who directed the team and aided in the punting and blocking. His clear-cut signals and long spiraling punts were very helpful to the team. He tackled hard, blocked cleanly and on the whole gave a very sportsmanlike performance on the gridiron. Frank is a senior and a second year letterman.

W. H. S. 40—VERONA 6 . . . The opening game was easily won and enabled Coach Bohren to observe the play of most of the members on the squad.

W. H. S. 0—PEABODY 6 . . . This was a bitterly fought struggle which the boys hated to lose. It marked the first defeat of a Wilkinsburg team by a city team.

W. H. S. 7—Norwin 6 . . . Undecided until the final minutes, Wilkinsburg came from behind to defeat a strong, stubborn Norwin eleven. Howard Bechtold's kick for extra point gave the well-earned victory.

W. H. S. 6—CLAIRTON 6 . . . Wilkinsburg traveled to Clairton and was surprised into a deadlock. Both teams appeared evenly matched although Wilkinsburg threatened their opponents' goal line more.

W. H. S. 0—JEANNETTE 26 . . . A heart-breaking defeat was administered to the boys by a much larger and more powerful Jeannette team at Jeannette. The tired regulars were unable to stop the enemy's drives.

W. H. S. 9—SWISSVALE 7 . . . Once again, Wilkinsburg beat Swissvale, although our rivals had expected to win this year. A safety scored by Jim McKnight in the final quarter was the winning margin.

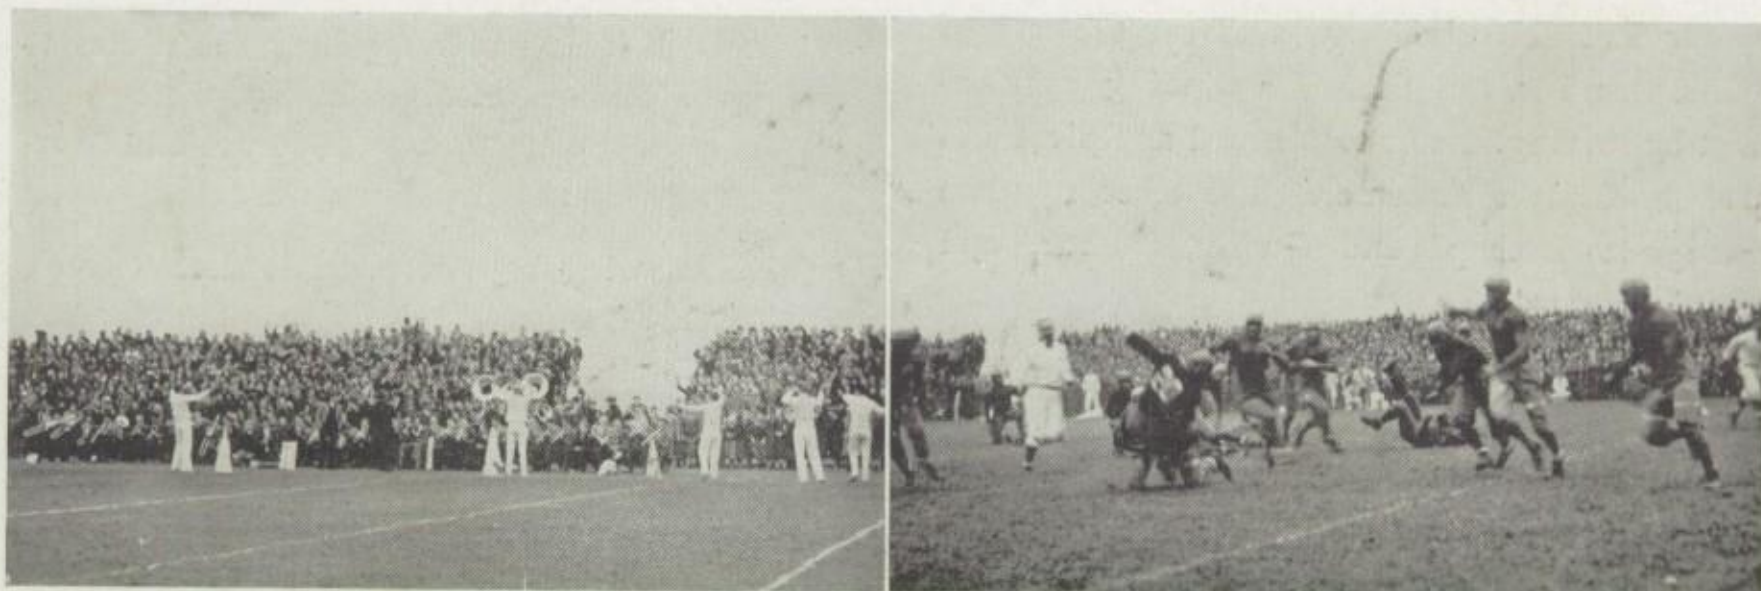

W. H. S. 0—N. BRADDOCK 12 . . . Another great rival was met but was too strong for our outweighed line. Scott was held scoreless during the first half but later scored the winning touchdowns.

W. H. S. 20—PITCAIRN 0 . . . A light, courageous Pitcairn team was easily defeated by the Wilkinsburg team. Many substitutes showed their ability in this game.

W. H. S. 0—GREENSBURG 7 . . . Our most important rival was a little too heavy and strong for our team this year. Greensburg finally won but was forced to exert all its power to gain the victory.

W. H. S. 82—OPP. 76 . . . Won four, lost four, tied one.

Squad A: D. Newbury, J. Morgan, W. Murray, M. Bruce, R. Grieve, D. Guerin, J. Field, W. Shafer, G. Schwartzkopf, H. Shadle.

Varsity Basketball

Guided by a new coach, Mr. Grim, the 1935-36 basketball team went through its hard schedule winning almost all the non-league games but ending up in last place in their section. Dogged by hard luck and lack of a winning combination, they lost six league games and won two. These were from Swissvale and Braddock and were considered upsets.

The team lost Homer Schadle, stellar forward, at mid-season due to graduation, which hampered the team since he was a consistent scorer and defensive player. Near the end of the season, Mr. Grim found a winning combination by moving Shafer to forward and pivot and putting Grieves at center. The other regulars were Schwartzkopf and Guerin, guards, and Field, forward.

After its two league victories, Wilkinsburg entered the Allegheny-Kiski tournament, defeating Franklin and losing to Arnold in the quarter finals.

The playing of Captain Schwartzkopf was the main support with the able assistance of John Field, sharp shooting forward. Both of these boys were usually the high scorers in every game although their success was dependent on the other players. George scored 189 points for the season's total while John was next with 127 points. With the exception of Field, the other four regulars will be back next year and a good season is expected since they are now experienced.

Mr. Grim also had many fine substitutes to call upon when needed. Among these were Newbury and Morgan, centers, Bruce and Murray, guards, and Shelby, forward.

The following boys received letters: George Schwartzkopf, John Field, Homer Shadle, Bill Shafer, Ralph Grieve, David Guerin, Don Newbury, Jesse Morgan, Michael Bruce, Wakefield Murray, David Shelby, also Melvin House and Jack Jones, co-managers.

Squad B: Co-Manager M. House, D. Wike, R. Irvine, C. Bainbridge, J. Vaughn, G. Kerr, D. Shelby, J. Frye, T. Devito, Co-Manager J. Jones.

Varsity B Team

These boys participated in almost all the preliminary games before the varsity struggles. Faithful in practice and hard-working during the games, they turned in many victories against fine reserve teams. Included among their victims were Braddock, Scott, Rankin, Turtle Creek, Edgewood, and Oakmont.

Under Mr. Grim's coaching in the fundamentals of the game, they became very efficient in passing and shooting. With the experience they have received this year, they should be fine material for next year's squad. These boys showed great ability and with practice, success should be theirs.

The senior co-managers, Jack Jones and Melvin House are to be commended for their work in preparing everything necessary for practice and games. They were also assisted by George White and Charles Colmery.

Track

The varsity track team under the supervision of Mr. Shupe came through the season with a successful record. They entered their dual meets with Aspinwall, Shadyside and Turtle Creek, winning the first two and losing the last by one point. At the Aspinwall meet John McNeil broke a standing record of twenty years by hurling the shot 47 feet. At this meet the high scorer was George Poindexter with thirteen points. At the Turtle Creek meet George again was the highest individual scorer with three first places. Next came the Inter-Boro meet at Dormont with eight schools competing. Wilkinsburg placed second in this meet, losing once more by a single point. Following this was the Inter-Scholastic meet at Pitt in which Wilkinsburg placed sixth out of seventeen schools.

The highlight of the season was the performance of Burt Aikman and George Poindexter in the Penn State

High School meet. Both set new records for high school boys in their respective events, Burt winning the 880 yard dash in 2 minutes and George taking the 100 yard dash in 9.7 seconds. To set such records brought more honors to Wilkinsburg than any other athletic event.

Other outstanding performers on the squad were Bill Keck and Tom Antisell, in the high jump, both being consistent point-getters. There were also Archie Poindexter, 100 yard dash, Frank Chatham, miler, Fred Tredinnick, hurdler, and John McNeil, shotput.

Letters were received by the following boys: Burt Aikman, Tom Antisell, Frank Chatham, Bill Keck, George Poindexter, Archie Poindexter, Eugene Smith, Ed Schaffer, Bob Shafer, Fred Tredinnick, John Holden, John McNeil, and Manager Blair Loyd.

Baseball

Mr. Grim called the baseball team out the last of March, and although handicapped by bad weather and insufficient practice, he turned out a good, fast ball team.

Wilkinsburg won second place in its section, winning both at home and away from East McKeesport, Elizabeth, Turtle Creek, and Pitcairn, and losing both games to McKeesport. In non-league games, they defeated W. P. I. D. twice but dropped two decisions to Shadyside and Allegheny.

The infield was composed of Bainbridge and Myers, first base; Deal, second base; Miller, short-stop; Barnes, third base, and Young and Wike, catchers. In the outfield were Forepaugh, left field; Bowersox and Thomas, center field, and Thompson, right field.

The pitching staff included M. Thomas, Spears, Inghram and Kendall. For reserve strength there were Devito, Marquard, Frye and Guerin.

Young, Miller, Thomas, Thompson and Barnes were prominent in their batting, while Forepaugh, Deal, Myers and Bainbridge were outstanding in the field. M. Thomas is credited with many of the pitching victories.

The athletes who earned their covered "W" were: William Thompson, Max Thomas, William Barnes, Edward Miller, Archie Young, Robert Spears, Norman Inghram, Forrest Myers, Melvin Deal, Charles Bainbridge, James Bowersox, Theodore Forepaugh, and Robert Holland, Manager.

CHARLES BAINBRIDGE

Charles won the admiration and affection of his classmates on the football team and kept them in the class room. Obstacles mean nothing to him for wherever he meets them he sets his will to work and emerges victorious. Proof of his popularity and ability was given when he was elected captain of the football team by his team-mates and chosen for the hall of fame by his classmates.

JAMES DAUBENSPECK

Dauby has so many different interests that he might be any one of a half dozen persons. In addition to leading his class scholastically, he finds time for many activities. The football team knows him as their very efficient manager, the Hi Ways staff as its business manager, the Student Council as its president. We all know him as a senior with a perfect "A" average through his entire school career.

GERALDINE BOYLES

Here is Gerry, better known to her Annual staff as "Chief", one of the busiest persons in school. But she is happiest when she is the busiest, which is evidenced by her many activities. Besides her work as editor of the yearbook, she is a very active member of the Spanish, Science, Drama and Book Clubs. Then, too, she finds time to serve as a Senior Counselor and to work with the Girls' Council.

WILMA DOBIE

Our Wilma has earned a well-deserved place in the limelight. Although she seems shy she has a keen sense of humor which is the delight of her many friends. She is an active Senior Counselor, and a member of the Science and Latin Clubs. The newly formed Book Club chose her as its president. However, Wilma is best known to the school for her skillful editorship of the high school newspaper, the Hi Ways.

Oh well! I hope you win all your games! Gerry

Because of her lovely personality and winning smile Myra Ann is one of the most popular of popular girls. In activities, she holds a prominent place. She was president of the Girls' Council and Latin Club in her junior year and of the Senior Counselors this year. Besides being one of the art editors of the "Annual" and a member of Student Council, Myra Ann still finds time to work in other clubs.

FLORIAN LUCKOCK

His pleasant smile and his ready cooperative spirit has won for Shorty many honors. In his junior year he gained the coveted post of honor, the presidency of his class to which he was re-elected in his senior year. Although an unfortunate accident kept Florian out of many games, nevertheless he won his third letter in football this year. We will lose a good friend and a loyal supporter when Shorty leaves.

BARRIE GRAHAM

Quiet and unassuming yet capable and dependable, all total to make Barrie one of the most popular boys in his class. Around the school with a pleasant word for everybody he can be depended upon to cheer up the gloomiest crowd. As president of the Hi-Y and also of the Drama Club, as head usher, Barrie has made an enviable place for himself which is hard to equal.

TOM RALSTON

Tom, with his charming smile, and his fine sense of sportsmanship, is rated as a jolly good fellow. As president of the National Honor Society, as a member of the Student Council, as an actor in school plays, Tom has made a name for himself. Besides these he is an outstanding member of the track teams, plays in the band and is an active member of half a dozen clubs.

History of The Senior Class

"Greetings, folks. Again the wheel of fortune spins. Around and 'round she goes and where she stops, nobody knows.

"Tonight our honor city is Wilkinsburg, the largest borough in the U. S., noted for her churches and her fine high school. The telephone number is W. H. S. 1936.

"First the wheel of fortune brings us quite a large group. Who's your spokesman?"

"I am, Major. We're a little nervous."

"Now, lad, you are just naturally worried at your—shall we call it—debut in this School of Life. What's your name?"

"Willis Dickson. This is Jack Colbaugh, my right hand man, and Jean Geiser, my secretary, and historically-minded Bill Hurtt."

"A fine looking crowd. Would I had time to meet the rest of your friends! What will you do for us this evening? Go right ahead. A little closer to the mike."

"Ladies and gentlemen, the Sophomore Valentine Hop!"

"Oh, these children are having a rather hard time of it, bumping, pushing, and struggling all over the floor." (Gong!)

"Next we have a smiling band of boys and girls. Who's your leader?"

"I am, sir. I'm Florian Luckock, Shorty for short. Here's my assistant, Bob Crawford; my secretary, Jane Holt; and Viola Spangler—our singer-historian. We've a few little numbers to do. Hope you like 'em."

"From the looks of your list we'll only have time for the most important, Shorty."

"O. K. First Lucielle Shakely and Harriet Engle will give a dramatic skit from "The Goose Hangs High".

"Next?"

"We call this the Spring Cotillion. Ready, fellows, swing your girls!"

"Well, I wish you could see this jolly younger set swaying, dipping, and gliding around the room. It's like a bubbling sip from the Fountain of Youth. All right. Phone number W. H. S. 1936.

* * * *

"As the third and final act on our program we've a young crowd, enthusiastic yet serious. Look who's here! Shorty, how did you get here?"

"By the hard road of study, Major, but we don't want to go back; we're going ON. See, here's Tom Ralston, he's my new assistant, and Frank Brouch, my secretary! And here are the senior members of the football, basketball, track, golf, chess, and tennis teams; the editors and senior staff members of our "Hi Ways" and our Annual"; the senior shop and A Cappella Choir leaders; and the seniors of the Student Council and the Activity Board. This huge, happy host, directed by our cheerleaders will give a 'pip' rally demonstration.

"All right. All right, continue."

"Our Senior Thespians will now give a skit from the play "Growing Pains".

"The next number is the Senior Varsity Ball."

"Shorty, it was beautiful. Folks, if you could have seen the grace and color in that, you would be as enthusiastic as we are here in the studio."

"Thanks, Major, now the entire class chorus will join in singing "Hail Alma Mater" and "For You, High".

"All right. All right. W. H. S. 1936. The votes are pouring in for this overwhelmingly successful group. Here is a message from Superintendent Graham of Wilkinsburg. It is a request that the members of the last group be sent to Wilkinsburg High School Auditorium on May 26 to graduate to bigger and better things.

"This captivating group will join the forty-eight other units (1887-1935) which are already being warmly welcomed in all the cities of the world. We wish for their success.

"You can send in your votes for a half hour—but the world will be sending in votes for this group forever. W. H. S. 1936."

Historian, BOBBY MURRAY

An important organization in the high schools throughout the United States, the National Honor Society is composed of the leading juniors and seniors. To be elected to this society is the highest honor that can be bestowed upon a student by the faculty. There are four requirements for membership, which are: scholarship—the student must be in the upper third of his class; service—the student must serve his school in every possible way; character—the student must demonstrate an honest spirit in his class work, and a spirit of cordiality and sincerity toward teachers and student associates; and leadership—the students must show ability to lead their fellow classmates in activities. As the purpose of the organization is to honor these students in our high school who are outstanding in leadership, character and service, as well as scholastic ability, these high ideals serve as an encouraging factor to do better work and uphold the standards of W. H. S.

Because the scholastic standing of this senior class is so high the elections were necessarily very close. There were a great many more students eligible than could be elected and some worthy students may have been omitted from the roster. However, the standards are set, the ballots cast to meet the standards and these are the results.

This year the National Honor Society, at the request of the Student Council, made a list of regulations for the tea dances. They also compiled a set of statistics about former members of the society who went on to higher institutions of learning and this list was sent to the state headquarters.

When we entered Senior High our class was the largest up to that date to enter; and this year we have the distinction of being the largest junior class ever enrolled.

As we turn the calendar back to that first year we find that this group of energetic sailors steered the good ship "Lollypop" to a successful dance. When the "Lollypop" weighed anchor, she sailed away with many happy couples aboard under the command of Captain Haskins and with the crowd cheering: "It's a hit".

This year the passengers and crew donned their diving suits to go down, down, down, to "Davy Jones Locker" (boys' gym) to dance with the lovely nymphs and enjoy themselves in a "Treasure Hunt" under Captain McFarland.

Not only in social activities has our class been successful, but also we have had our share of representatives in all the major activities and have maintained a high scholastic standard for these two years.

SOPHOMORE OFFICERS

President	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	BOB ARCHIBALD
Vice President	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	TOM CUMMINGS
Secretary	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	RUTH DUMM
Treasurer	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	BETTY TRAVIS
Historian	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	VIRGINIA PORTER

The sophomores with Engineer-President Bob Archibald spent their first semester in adjusting themselves to their new environment. The second semester they got off to a flying start in social activities with the Trans-continental Trot. This dance was held in the gym which was decorated in suitable style. The theme of the decorations centered about the new stream-lined trains travelling from New York to San Francisco and all interesting parts of the country between these places.

The success of its members in the classroom has been a fitting start for the class which is the largest ever to enter Wilkinsburg High School. Unlimited talent already has been discovered among its six hundred and ninety-seven members. Naturally much more remains to be discovered and brought to the front.

Already the class has representatives in Student Council, Hi Ways, and all other organizations open to it. The class of '38 has indeed moved forward nobly.

We are the "backbone of the school",
You hear it far and wide;
For juniors are important folk
Next year the school we'll guide.

We are the people "on the shelf",
They tell us from the stage;
For tho' we're great in numbers
We're very small in age.

A SENIOR TALE

One LOVE (ly) DAY Mrs. BECK ANDERSON HENRY took HENRY'S girl EMEIGH (AME) BROWN out for a ride in his LITTLE GRAY AUSTIN. On their way OVER a HILL they noticed the gas tank was almost empty so they had to stop and GASSER up. After a LONG ride they decided to stop for LYNCH at an OLDHAUSE called the GOLDEN HOOD.

OUR SCHOOL SPIRIT

In our school there is a something,
Something undefinable
Living in our hearts and minds;
Shape it has not, yet we feel it
Grasping, holding us forever.
On the field, in all our sports
There it is, although unseen;
In the quiet of our chapel
Strong its presence in us burns;
Oh; may it always live and shine.

They hung up their COATES and were USHERed to a table. In a JOLLY mood they called for a TREPEL order which consisted of CAMPBELL soup, RALSTON VITINA, YOUNG CER-RULI, a GOODE SWOISH, GRAFT cheese, BRANNON WILSON jello. While they were waiting for the food to be CURRYed in, Mrs. BECHTOLD asked them to excuse her. She asked the waiter, "CERRA phone BOOTH near?" EMEIGH observed many different types of people in the room. She KECKed HENRY on the KNEE and said, "FRAGALI sakes, look at that man with a SHARPNACK and a BRODHEAD and a SCARR on his face." HENRY said that the man was a former CHAMP who had taken many a HITT. Then she saw a REICH LAWYER in a TAYLOR made suit and his wife, a lady of STILES. The next arrival was a BISHOP of a famous KIRK who sat down with an ELDERly DEAN.

Our high school is a happy place,
You rarely see a gloomy face;
The students are cheerful and the teachers,
too,
No wonder it's fun for me and you.

This poem was very hard to write,
Once it kept me awake all night.
I worked and worked to get it through,
Now look at it—what good did it do?

At a nearby table sat a SQUIER who was loudly informed he needed a SHAVE by his BARBOUR. After our two friends had eaten and paid the PRICE of the meal, EMEIGH said she felt FULLER than a FULTON. She had just begun to PAINTER lips with a DAUBENSPECK and to HUNTER coat when she noticed a BAUN in a BURGER'S pocket. She told HENRY in WURTZ so SHAKELY that they lost their COURAGE and hastened out by the ANEX.

By taking this course you will gain knowledge that will fit you for responsibilities that will be thrust on you at some future time.

To obtain this knowledge you must set aside superstition and doubt and be willing to investigate before you are faced with this responsibility.

A visit to our Funeral Home will acquaint you with one phase of this problem.

We will be glad to point out a line of action that will be of value when needed.

They got in the car, and EMEIGH turns on the radio and GETZ music from FAUST. On the way home they see a pile of HAYS in a GREEN FIELD near some BARNES. Near a filling station the car radiator freezes so HENRY honks the HORN and asks a GUY for some water in a BECKET. As the water is hot, the attendant BYRNES his hand. They finally reach her HOUSE and ring the BELL. Her father, a wealthy MERCHANT, opens the DORE. They enter the HALL where HENRY leans on the BANNISTER and tells EMEIGH that she is the only one that MATTERS to him. She, however, ignores this and BEGGS him to play (Bain) BRIDGE. WING EN ROTH comes in later, and the four play all evening. When the clock chimes eleven, the three bid their hostess GOOD (Mc) KNIGHT.
